- Nominee's public relations practices played a major part in these enhancements.

Eligibility

- A recipient of the Diamond Award can receive only one such award in a lifetime.
- No award can be presented posthumously. (However, if the award recipient has been named but dies before the award is presented, it may be presented to the recipient's survivors.)

Nomination

- The Council chairman will mail copies of nomination forms and supporting materials to all eligible past presidents for review in advance of the Past President's Council annual meeting.

Selection Process

Nominations are reviewed and recipients selected at the annual meeting of Arkansas PRSA's Past Presidents Council. The Council comprises past presidents of Arkansas PRSA who are currently members of the chapter.

- Past presidents must have current Chapter membership status to be a member of the Past Presidents Council.
- The Past Presidents Council annual meeting shall be held as soon as possible before Jan. 15.
- Past presidents must be present to be eligible to vote.
- A vote will be conducted if a quorum (majority) of the eligible past presidents is present.
- The Council chairman will present the nominations at the Past Presidents Council annual meeting. A paper ballot vote will be conducted one nomination at a time for each nomination presented.
- If the nominee meets all criteria and is deemed worthy by a favorable vote of two-thirds of Council members present, the award will be presented.
- If a nominee does not receive two-thirds vote from the first ballot, a second and subsequent ballot can be made by approval of a majority vote of the past presidents present.
- If the request for a second or subsequent ballot fails, consideration of that nominee shall cease.
- The Past Presidents Council is not bound to select a recipient each year.
- Ideally, only one recipient should be named per year, but the Council may elect more than one recipient per year.
- Nominations must be re-submitted each year for consideration.

Award Presentation:

The award, which is a special design incorporating one of more Arkansas crystals, will be presented at the chapter's annual Awards event. (In special circumstances, should the recipient not be able to attend this banquet, the award may be presented at a regular monthly membership meeting of Arkansas PRSA).
